

Agency for Cultural Affairs, Government of Japan

Agency for Cultural Affairs, Government of Japan & Chubu University in collaboration with the Lebanese University are organizing

A Lebanese-Japanese Exchanging Program on Conservation of Lebanese Cultural Heritage

Under the Program

"International Contribution Hubs Exchange Project for Cultural Heritage in Lebanon" conducted by Chubu University on behalf of the Agency for Cultural Affairs, Government of Japan

Hybrid International Workshop

ハイブリッド・国際ワークショップ

Enhancement of Archaeological Sites

Viewpoints from Cultural Heritage, Archaeology, Architecture, and Fine Arts

考古学遺跡の利用と活用

文化遺産、考古学、建築学、芸術の視点から

3rd February 2025 1 PM - 5 PM (UTC+9 Japanese Time)

Tokyo Satellite Office, Chubu University, JAPAN:

Online Link: Zoom Meeting. Please register through above QR code. (Deadline 1 February 2025)

Program

- 1:00-1:10 Introduction by Shin Nishiyama
- 1:10-1:40 Shigeo Aoki (Japan Consortium for International Cooperation in Cultural Heritage)
Methods of Archaeological Site Preservation in Japan
- 1:40-2:10 Masako Marui (Sophia University, Tokyo)
Angkor Region in Cambodia as seen from the Viewpoint of Public Archaeology
- 2:10-2:40 Claudine Abdul Massih (Lebanon Mountain Trail Association, Saint Joseph University of Beirut)
Cultural Heritage along the Lebanon Mountain Trail
- 2:40-3:00 Coffee Break
- 3:00-3:30 Jeanine Abdul Massih (Lebanese University)
Restoration and Display of the Iron Age Site in Batroun, Lebanon
- 3:30-4:00 Hala Younes (Lebanese American University)
Lost in the Right Direction: How to Stage an Exhibition in an Abandoned Archaeological Site
- 4:00-4:30 Shin Nishiyama (Chubu University)
Challenge in Archaeological Site Preservation and Museum Exhibition in Iraqi Kurdistan
- 4:30-4:55 Discussion
- 4:55-5:00 Closing Remarks by Shin Nishiyama